

around town

The Cohasset I.S.I.A. Skating Team representing the Cohasset Winter Gardens had its second big win this year when they placed first in the New England Regional I.S.I.A. Skating competition held at the West Suburban Arena in Natick. In addition to winning the New England Championship, the team recently placed third nationally at the Lake Placid competition. The team from the South Shore won 80 medals over-all. They are coached by Marsha Breen, Libby Kirkland and Priscilla Patterson. Cohasset members are: Cheryl Adams, Janet Carlson, Meg McCullough and Elizabeth McGuire.

The Cedar Hill Fair, sponsored by the Friends of the South Shore Conservatory of Music on the grounds of the school, will offer fun for the entire family. Among the Friends working on arrangements for the fair are: Mrs. Kenneth Cook, Mrs. Marilyn Kurtz and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hurtig.

William Hannon of Linden Road has been named assistant for external affairs to the president at the Mass. College of Art. His duties include supervision of alumni affairs, planning and development, public relations and community affairs. Prior to this appointment, Hannon was associate dean of design and media chairman of the division of design.

Francis Chase of Jerusalem Road, chairman of the board of Columbia Chase Corp. of Braintree and president of Chase and Sons Inc. of Randolph, was nominated as the Massachusetts representative on the board of trustees of Northern Energy Corp. by Gov. Edward King. The Corporation is a non-profit organization that encourages the development of solar energy, and is the parent corporation of Northeast Solar Energy Center, the federally funded regional center for solar promotion and development. Columbia Chase Corp. manufactures a number of energy related materials, including those used in electrical power transmission. Chase said "I feel there is a great need and a great potential for solar energy". He is a member of the World Affairs Council and the World Business Council.

Mrs. Stephen Bartow was elected director of the Alumnae Board of Management at Lasell Junior College.

George Powers, a Senior at Colby College majoring in English, has been elected a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

The New England Farm and Garden Association held its annual luncheon meeting at the Country Club in Brookline. Scholarship students were honored and a new board of officers was elected. Among members at the meeting were Mrs. George Willard Smith and Mrs. Mayo Shattuck.

Dot Bresnahan is a top producer for Dwyer and Realtor earning a quarter of a million dollars in sales in three weeks. Dot is part of a professional team of 12 associates of the realty company.

Robert McCoobery of Ledgewood Drive is among 30 managerial and supervisory personnel of the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Co. attending a technical workshop at the John Hancock Institute. McCoobery is district manager of the Norwell district office, and a member of the National Association of Life Underwriters.

Making plans for the Museum of Fine Arts fourth annual "Art In bloom" celebration to be held May 8, 9, and 10 at the museum are: Mrs. Charles Ford and John J. Hickey a member of the Community Garden Club. This festival of art and flowers is the major fundraiser organized by the Ladies Committee each year.

The Second Congregational Church held a special program, a band of "Good News bears" mimed the sermon of the Children's Service under the direction of Mrs. Perry and Mrs. Seddon. Good News

Bears taking part in the play were: Bill Walsh, Troy Haase, Carleyann Rose, Matthew Silvia, Melissa Nothnagle, Pamela Haase, Robby McNeill, Caitlin Shannon, Brian Shultz and Andrew Orr.

Joan Turnbull, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Turnbull sr., and a 1976 graduate of Glenbrook High School, is attending the Katherine Gibbs School in Boston. Miss Turnbull is enrolled in the school's one-year secretarial program, after attending the University of Illinois for two years.

The second annual Youth For Scouting Hike-a-Thon is scheduled for Sunday April 29. Merle Brown and Andrea Davis are town coordinators for the event, which is open to all scouts, parents and friends of scouting. Proceeds of the 10-mile hike will go to Cub and Boy Scout camps and Exploring Summerfest.

'REEDS' IN HARBOR are, from left, Billy, John, Steve and Jerry Reed, trying their luck for an early catch.

(Greg Derr photo)

MAYBE THE BEST PLACE IN THE WORLD TO LIVE

- Luxury 1 & 2 Bedroom Garden Apartments
- Day Care Center Available
- Swimming Pool, Tennis Courts, Playgrounds
- Senior Citizen Discount Available
- Rental from $255

FOX RUN — Route 139 — Marshfield
Resident Manager 837-1103 or 837-6319

Spring Tennis Sale

Wilson - Chris Evert or Jack Kramer

Reg. $39.95 - Sale $31.95

Spaulding Accomplish - Reg. $58.95 Sale $48.95

Donnay - All Wood - Reg. $44.95 - Sale $36.95

Special Bonus

$5.00 String Sale on every racket that you purchase or bring in.

GOOD SPORT

SPORTING GOODS

166 Cushing Hwy (Rte. 3A)

Cohasset, Mass.

383-6550

Library Stories

The Cohasset Public Library invites children between the ages of 3½ and 5 to six weekly sessions of stories, finger-plays and book activities. A Thursday and a Friday series will begin May 3 and 4 at 1:30 p.m.

Advance registration is necessary for each series and each group is limited to 15 children.

Call Jo Ann Mitchell or Marilyn Pope at 383-1348 any afternoon after 2 p.m. to register.

HERE AT TOWLE
ELECTRIC...

we're going nuts . . .

and bolts . . . and hammers . . . and saws . . .
in fact — complete lines of hardware,
plumbing supplies, paint products

and much more!
See it all on May 5th
at the
Grand Opening
of

• DMB Hardware •
a division of

TOWLE
ELECTRICAL CO., INC.
166 KING ST., RTE. 3A
COHASSET, MA 02025

383-0036

THE WELCH COMPANY
SCITUATE HARBOR
FRONT STREET
545 1400

Come visit our Garden Shed